2025/2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

Happy Friday everyone! Happy Roald Dahl Day!
The Roald Dahl costumes were wonderful!

Thank you to Miss Docker for arranging such a wonderful morning celebrating the much-loved author, Roald Dahl. Talking of authors, over the Summer break, 3 children from our school wrote their very own book, I had the delight of sharing Leo's in assembly on our first day back! Well done to Enzo and Tobias too! We also have a Dad who has become an author too, Isaac's Dad, Paul Brotheridge, it's called the Bedtime Goblin! Perfect bedtime story! We truly are a family of readers!

I do hope that you have read my correspondence about safety outside the school gates - can I please urge you to park thoughtfully so that cars/coaches and our very own school minibus can access school safely and get children back to school without risk.

Next week, we have our first INSPIRE workshop, I look forward to seeing lots of Year 6 parents in school! This will be an opportunity to find out more about what your child needs to know by the end of the year and have the opportunity to work with them in their classroom!

Guess what? Just in case you wanted to know...there are only 15 Fridays till Christmas Day!
Happy weekend everyone!

Roald Dahl Day!

What an exciting day we've all had! Children have spent the day emersed in so many fantastic Roald Dahl books! We've dream catchers being made, medicines created and enormous crocodiles bought to life! Thank you for all the fantastic outfits that were either bought or hand made for today, it really does help to make the day extra special!

Nurture

There has been a gradual increase over recent years of children suffering with anxiety. If your child is anxious the best way to help them is to listen, understand, and talk about their feelings. It is very important to make it clear to your child that there are child worries and adult worries and it is not their job to worry about things that may be concerning you. Children also need to develop resilience to feel the fear but do it anyway. If a child is anxious and asks to have a day off school, TAKE CARE! By saying yes, you could create a habit that is very hard to break. Tell your child to try – trust the teachers at Windy to look after them and call you if the child still feels anxious. If your child knows you trust us, then they will trust us too!
